

Business and Technology ConsultingSM
Education Solutions

Operating System Running SAS[®] Under Unix

Course Length: 1 day CEUs 0.6

Format: Hands on Training

AUDIENCE

This course is designed for UNIX users who want a complete understanding of the UNIX specific topics in SAS.

BENEFITS

This course will provide attendees with a better understanding of how SAS works under the UNIX operating system.

PREREQUISITES

Some understanding of the UNIX environment.

COURSE TOPICS

- Batch submissions
- Display Manager Environment
- Listing directory members
- Including code from a directory
- Filing code to a directory
- Configuration issues
- Printing under Unix
- Determining installed products
- Creating autoexec files
- Efficiency issues
- Client server issues (optional)
- UNIX operating system basics
- UNIX-specific SAS system options